No. 1029—73.

The 12th September 1889.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders will be received at the office of the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore, up to the 30th September 1889, for the supply of the following articles to the Central Distillery, Bangalore :—

1,600 Jars to hold 2 gallons of liquor.
1,600 Porcelain taps for do.

To be delivered at the rate of not less than 50 of each at one time, and as needed, up to the limit fixed above.

2. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of Rs. 20 in currency notes as earnest money, in default of which tenders will not be accepted. Tenders should be superscribed " Tenders for the supply of jars and taps to the Central Distillery, Bangalore."

3. The final acceptance of any tender will rest with the Excise Commissioner, who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender, or to assign any reason for the rejection of any tender.

4. Within seven days of the acceptance of the tender, the successful competitor will be required to execute an agreement on a proper stamp paper, in default of which his tender will be cancelled and his earnest money forfeited.

5. The name of the successful competitor, whose tender has been accepted, will be posted on a notice board in the Excise Commissioner's Office. No enquiries regarding the acceptance or rejection of a tender will be replied to.

6. On acceptance of a tender, the earnest money on rejected tenders will be returned.

7. Specimens can be seen at the office.
